

In addition, we require drivers to collect goods from supporters and deliver to our shops or storage units and Trappers who are prepared to help with farm and feral cats, transporting to and from vets. Again, training will be given.

If you are interested in helping us but are afraid to commit yourself—just ask for a taster day—come along and see what its like to work within our team.

Do you really want to make a difference to the lives of sick, abandoned, unwanted cats and kittens?

Shropshire Cat Rescue make a difference, we offer veterinary care, food and shelter to homeless cats and kittens all over the Shropshire area and beyond—but we need your help.

Shelter Helpers

Our shelters in Bayston Hill cares for large numbers of cats and kittens. Duties include feeding, cleaning, medicating, grooming, washing up bowls and litter trays, washing bedding and much, much more. We have toilet facilities, hot water and hot and cold drinks.

A car and a mobile phone are preferable but not essential, training in all aspects of the work will be given. Anyone over the age of 18 can apply. The hours that currently need to be covered are from 9.30am ending at a time to suit you (usually between two to four hours).

Fundraisers

Our vet bills increase every year as word gets around of the good work we do. For us to continue helping and saving lives, we need people like you to arrange and organise fund-raising events. From car boot sales to coffee mornings; from book sales to sponsored events; your ideas and your hard work with the support of our fundraising volunteers can really make the difference.

For more information telephone Ola on 01743 367904.

Shop volunteers

We have shops in Scotland Street, Ellesmere and Roushill Bank, Shrewsbury. Our shops are open between 9.30am and 5.00pm. Duties can include work on the shop floor, serving customers, refilling the shelves and pricing goods or working behind the scenes sorting out goods as they are brought in for us to sell. Hours to suit yourself and by all means, bring along a friend for company.
